

31st APPLE COUNTRY FAIR

- WHEN: Saturday, October 10, 2009 (rain or shine) from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm
- WHERE: Brookfield Town Common (Brookfield Elementary School if inclement weather)
- FEE: $50.00 (spaces are 12' x 12' outside and smaller if in the school). This fee is NONREFUNDABLE upon acceptance to the fair.

DEADLINE: 'APPLE-CATIONS' are received until the week of the fair or until all spaces are rented (whichever comes first). All efforts are made to give returning crafters the same spot on the Common unless they request a different location. All spaces are reserved for returning crafters until June 15th. Spaces which aren't rented by returning crafters by June 15th are consider no longer reserved and will become available to others. Priority for placement of new crafters is determined by the date of apple-cation receipt. New applicants will get a reply (if they included a SASE) after July 1st.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Three color photographs of your work and display will be required if you did not display in our Fair in either 2007 or 2008. These will be returned ONLY if you include a self-addressed envelope with adequate return postage.
2. $50.00 per space - check payable to THE BROOKFIELD COMMUNITY CLUB. Mail to P.O. Box K312, Brookfield, MA 01506.
3. A self-addressed stamped envelope (SASE) for mailing of notification. (Notifications will not be sent to those who don't include this.) Please include adequate postage for notification and any pictures you may have sent. NOTE: If you supply an email address and no SASE, you will be notified by email.
4. All craftspeople will be responsible for providing their own setups including rain cover in case of unexpected inclement weather.

INFORMATION: Marlaine Burbank (508) 867-2521.

CATEGORIES: All handmade arts and crafts. They must be the original work of the artisan. Kits, flea items, food, and imported items are not accepted. The Brookfield Community Club reserves the right to limit the variety of crafts per booth and the number of craftspeople per category.
